

A Conversation with Andy: “When I Was Your Age...”

Andy Warhol and Julia Warhola, 1930s.
Archives of The Andy Warhol Museum

1. “...I loved watching Hollywood movies, playing with my Charlie McCarthy doll, and coloring in my room.” What do you love to do?

2. “...I took drawing and painting classes on Saturdays at the Carnegie Museum.”
What do you like to do on Saturdays?

3. "...I kept a scrapbook of autographed pictures of movie stars – my first photo was of Shirley Temple!" What do you collect?

4. "...I had drawing contests with my two older brothers, John and Paul. My mother Julia would give the winner a treat and I always won." What contests do you play?

5. "...My favorite comics to read were Popeye and Dick Tracy. I even made paintings about them later in my life." Who are your favorite cartoon or comic book characters?

6. "...I took pictures with my Kodak Brownie camera and played movies on a filmstrip projector." Do you like to take pictures? If so, of what?
