

the warhol: 2009 Fall Teacher Workshops

	Shepard Fairey & Andy Warhol: Appropriating and Reproducing Popular Culture This workshop explores new models of artmaking and producing using stencils, silkscreens, stickers, and collage. Gallery discussions focus on both artists' approaches to art and business, and questions the boundaries of fine art and commercial art:	Friday November 13th from 4:30-7:30 pm Cost: $35.00
	The Colors of Warhol: Silver & Gold From gold Marilyn and Jackie paintings to Elvis on the silver screen, explore Warhol's use of silver and gold throughout his career. Warhol used gold leaf to embellish his much loved holiday cards and illustrations from the 1950s. Using Warhol's colors, you too can silkscreen your own prints, holiday cards and wrapping paper in the studio.	Friday December 11th from 4:30- 7:30pm Cost: $35.00
